Split Payments With No Risk

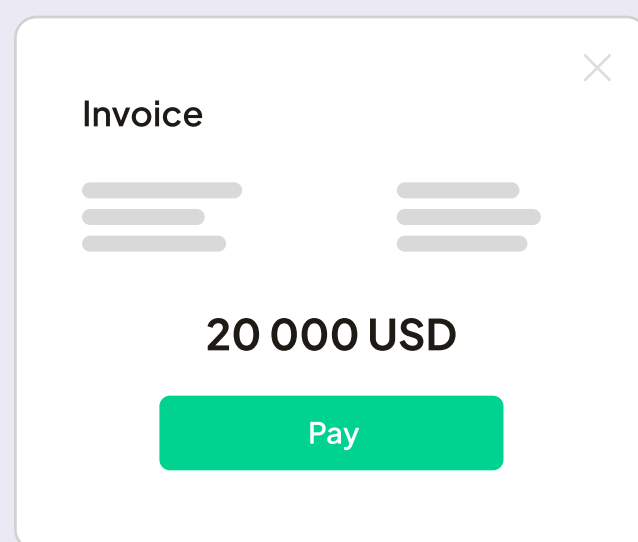

Boost sales and strengthen partnerships with flexible payment terms your customers will love.

Radans is an embedded Buy-Now-Pay-Later solution that lets Merchants buy inventory in instalments, while Suppliers receive full payments upfront.

How It works

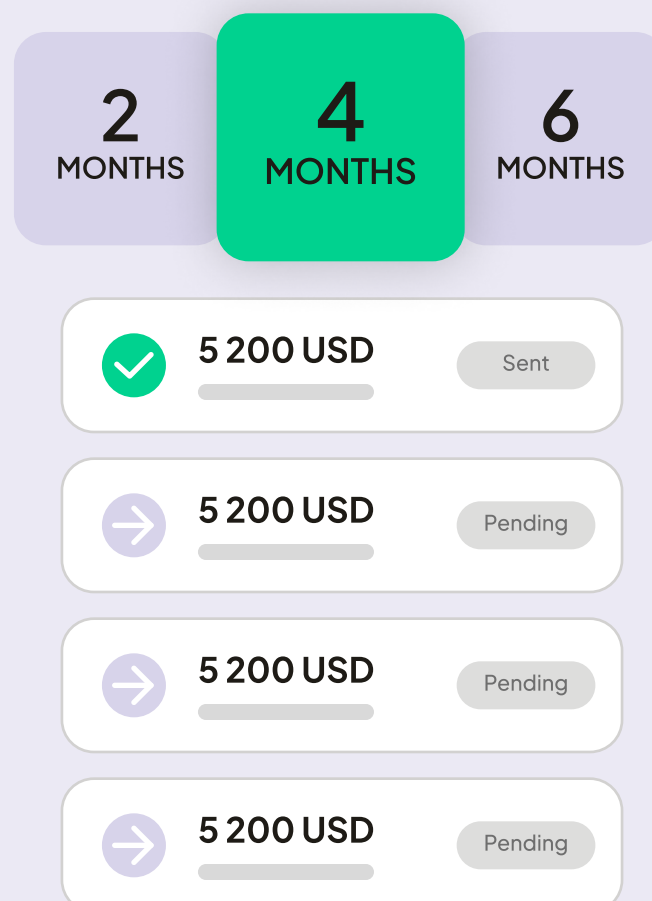

Step 1

Invoice your customer via Radans

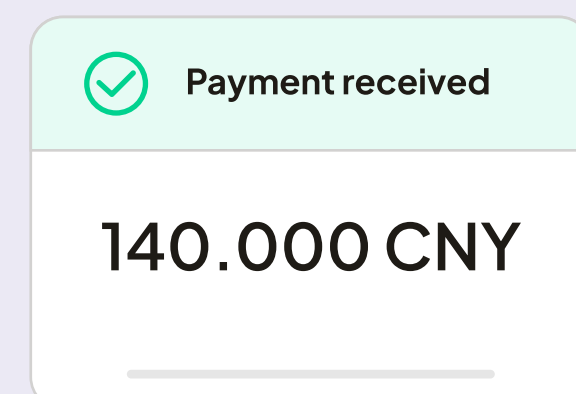

Step 2

Your customer selects a payment plan

Step 3

We transfer you a full payment upfront

Say goodbye to disputes over net terms and payment conditions — we've solved it for you.

No Integration Required: Enjoy a hassle-free experience as Radans is integrated with WeChat.

Direct Deposits in Local Currency: No juggling with payment platforms, no exchange issues—global payments made easy.

Financial Risk Mitigation: We handle credit checks and installment collections so you can focus on growing your business and building healthy customer relationships.

Radans is offering a special opportunity for early adopter Chinese suppliers. Join us for a user interview, share your feedback, and receive exclusive terms for your first deal, along with a bonus as a token of appreciation for your time.
